SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES
#bicbreakfast

Azar Hussain, Information Manager at Faber and Faber

Azar Hussain has been Information Manager at Faber and Faber since May 2010. His key responsibilities include managing the internal and external flow of data and developing and implementing new information systems. He read English at UCL and holds a Master's Degree in Library and Information Science from UCL's Department of Information Studies.

Paul Theijs, Applications Development Manager, Headfast/BooksoniX

Paul Theijs has been the Applications Development Manager for Head Software International for the last six years; Head Software International is the company behind the successful title management and ONIX delivery service BooksoniX. Before this, Paul had an international career in software development with Chore-Time Brock, General Electric, and Thomson Reuters.